Alabama budget cuts are putting the mentally ill behind cold, steel bars with cold, hardened criminals.

Law enforcers are juggling the sick with the sinful, doing the best they can with what state lawmakers are shoveling into their system.

Alabama sheriffs say state facing mental health crisis

The same politicians who blame gun violence on random insanity are the first ones to cut funds to this state's mental health services.

In Alabama, the mentally ill are sent to jail to fester instead of a hospital to heal.

In Alabama police shootings, mental illness often a factor

And that's just criminal.

God bless the sheriffs and local law enforcers who have to deal with the fallout of our senseless system. God bless the mentally ill and their families who are doing the best they can. God help us have the sense to rid ourselves of pathetic, goober spineless "leaders" who make no sense at all.
