TUSCALOOSA, AL (WBRC) - Governor Robert Bentley is scheduled to make two stops in Tuscaloosa Tuesday, putting the spotlight on the issue of Medicaid funding in Alabama.

At 9 a.m., Bentley will visit The Arc of Tuscaloosa County, which provides employment and other services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

The Arc serves residents in Tuscaloosa, Hale, Pickens, Bibb and Greene Counties.

Bentley is also scheduled to tour Indian Rivers Mental Health Clinic, which provides care related to mental illness, substance abuse, and developmental disabilities. Indian Rivers serves residents in Tuscaloosa, Bibb and Pickens counties.

Bentley is pushing the Alabama legislature to vote on a lottery bill, which would then go before voters for approval. When Bentley announced that he would call a special legislative session on a lottery proposal, he talked about meeting the need for Medicaid funding in Alabama.
